French Order Nine More Battalions To Counter Threat

PARIS, Sept. 2—UP—France ordered nine more battalions of troops to North Africa Friday in the new wave of violence that left 57 persons dead, 26 wounded and six missing in the past 24 hours.

The fresh troops were destined for Algeria, where six other battalions have gone in the past week to help put down Nationalist uprisings.

Most of the new casualties were inflicted in that key region of France's North African territories. But there also were trouble spots in Tunisia and Morocco, where plans to restore peace ran into more snags.

French mop-up drives caused most of the casualties. In Algeria, 54 rebels, police and settlers were killed, seven loyalists were wounded and six were missing. In Morocco, three civilians and police were killed, and four wounded. In Tunisia, four gendarmes and one nomad were wounded.

The troop reinforcements were approved by the North African coordinating committee at a meeting held under the chairmanship of Premier Edgar Faure.

The committee at the same time approved a reform program for Algeria which provided for separation of the Moslem religion from the state, more local autonomy, instruction in Arabic as well as French in the schools, and land reform measures.

All four projects will be submitted to the Algerian assembly when it meets Sept. 26.

Wilson Asked To Reconsider 'Guilt By Kin' Discharge

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2—UP—A Senate subcommittee said Friday it has asked Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson to intervene in the "shocking" discharge of an Army lieutenant involved in a guilt-by-kinship security case.

A spokesman for the Senate constitutional rights subcommittee said counsel Lon Hocker has asked Wilson to reconsider the security discharge of 1st Lt. Walter K. Novak, of Clio, Mich. All but two of 14 charges against him involved his relatives.

The subcommittee, an arm of the Senate Judiciary committee, was asked to look into the Novak case by Sen. Pat McNamara. The Michigan Democrat called it a "shocking miscarriage of justice."

The Army refused to discuss the case, except to say that it had received a letter from the Senate subcommittee and is planning a reply.

Novak's case is the latest in a series of what have become known as "guilt-by-kinship" cases. Possibly the most publicized of these was the case of Eugene W. Landy who said he was denied a commission in the naval reserve because his mother once was a Communist.

Records of the Senate Constitutional Rights subcommittee show that Novak, a former enlisted man, re-entered the Army with a commission as an electrical engineer. Fourteen security charges were made against him last January, 10 months after he was ordered out of guided missile school without explanation and made a mess officer.

Novak, who had extended his service for two years to become a guided missile officer, was issued a security discharge Aug. 8 at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala.

Twelve of the charges against him concerned his father, mother and sister. Two related to Novak himself, that he had been a member of the International Workers Order (IWO) and that he did not reveal that fact to the Army.

Clear, Mild Is Today's Forecast

Another mild, fall-like day is predicted for local area today by government weather observers. Today is expected to be much the same as yesterday, clear and not much change in temperature.

Generally fair with slowly rising temperatures is forecast for Arkansas.

Monroe's maximum temperature yesterday was 86, the minimum 58, as recorded by C.A.A. officials at Selman Field.

Charges Against Monroe Students Thrown Out By DA

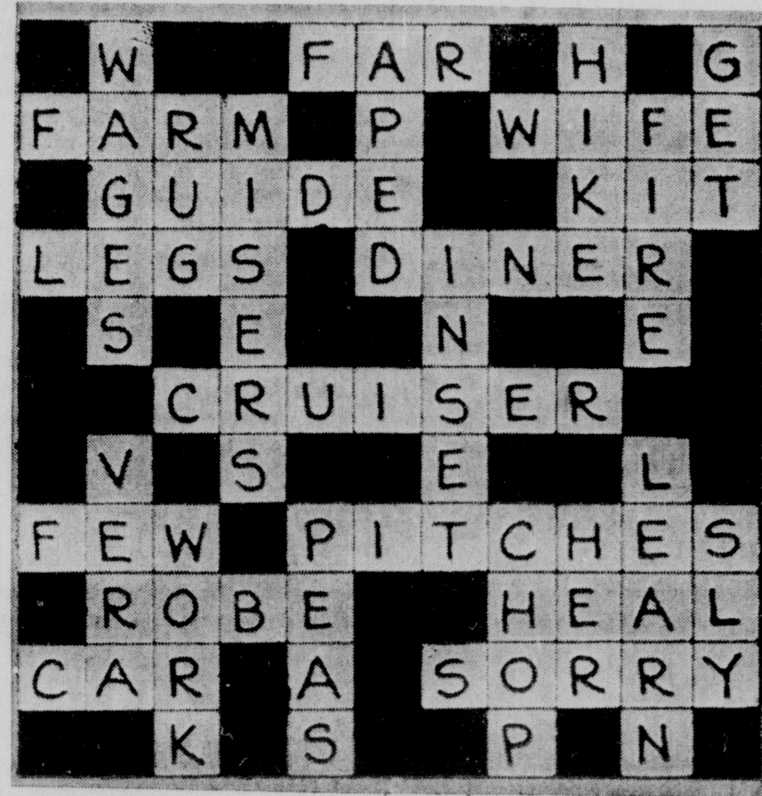

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2 (AP) — Adrian Duplantier, acting district attorney, said today he had refused to accept charges of simple battery against four college students arrested on the complaint of a police officer.

Duplantier said there was not enough evidence against the students accused by Roger Leoncavallo of ganging up on him in a brawl Wednesday night.

Duplantier said several witnesses said the students did not provoke the incident which arose over a parking dispute.

The four, all Louisiana State University medical students, were Edgar Galloway, 22, Shreveport; Albert S. Donald, 22, and Edwin Jenevieve, 21, both of Monroe, and Lawrence McAlphin, 21, of Lake Charles.

40 Million Cars Expected To Jam Roads

Officials Brace For Labor Day; To Enforce Slogan

CHICAGO, Sept. 2—UP—The nation began the long Labor Day holiday Friday and authorities prepared to enforce to the hilt a "slow down and live" policy in an effort to reduce accidents.

The United Press count of casualties began at 6 p.m. and will end at midnight next Monday, Labor Day.

During this period the National Safety Council estimated that 400 persons will die in traffic mishaps across the nation and that 40 million autos will be on the move.

Generally pleasant and sunny weather was expected to add to the jam of traffic for the last "open weather" holiday of the summer season. Only a blistering heat wave in southern California marred the good weather picture.

Some 1.5 million autos were expected to jam the roads in the New York City area and Chicago counted on an exodus of nearly 1 million cars.

Labor Day traditionally brings a heavy travel volume and a high accident death rate when pleasure-seekers get their last chance to flock to resorts, fishing streams or beaches.

President Eisenhower planned to spend the weekend golfing at his Denver retreat, while labor organizations prepared for their traditional parades and rallies Monday.

The Safety Council's estimate of deaths was well above the 368 persons killed in traffic over Labor Day last year, but short of the all-time record of 453 deaths in 1951. Almost everywhere authorities mapped extraordinary measures to hold down accidents, branding excessive speed as the chief threat to safety.

Problem Changes; Too Much Voltage Hits Some Areas

This crazy Monroe electricity! Friday the stuff was blowing fuses, ruining television sets and knocking out freezers.

Poor voltage regulation was reported the cause of all this disturbance in the power currents yesterday when the power was returned to distribution lines after being off for a short while.

The voltage was checked at a number of homes in the neighborhood of 2200 Essex and 1700 Emerson, revealing that where it should normally be 110 it then varied to as high as 136 volts and for 220-volt wiring, yesterday's sudden push of electrons jumped it up as high as 260 volts.

It was thought by engineers that cooler weather locally has caused less use of fans, air conditioners, etc., and when the power was re-applied by the plant after yesterday's outage it was merely a (Continued On Second Page)

Vows To Shoot Them Lady Farmer Defies Govt. Inspectors

HUMMELSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 2—UP—Elsie Mumma, a spunky, 55-year-old lady farmer who calls the U. S. wheat quota system ungodly vowed Friday to shoot the next federal inspector to set foot on her land.

She was served with a federal summons this week to appear in U. S. district court on a $403.20 suit brought by the U. S. as a penalty for growing 18 acres more wheat than allowed on her 70-acre farm.

"My ancestors pioneered this land in 1624," she told the court in an answer mailed to Scranton, "and as long as I own the land, pay the taxes, pay my debts, and ask for no aid from the government, the land is mine, to have, to hold, to govern, to protect, to plant, to harvest, and no one has a right to enter upon the land without my permission or without a warrant of law, and I will die to defend my right."

Miss Mumma, who is five-feet-two and blue-eyed, said she had fought a state highway department attempt to take part of her land for a by-pass and had successfully defeated a school board attempt to "take 26 of my 60 acres."

"And now they have come at me by two and threes from the federal government. And if they set foot (Continued On Second Page)

Holdup Suspects Captured; Held Children Hostage

EL RENO, Okla., Sept. 2—UP—Two suspects in a brazen daylight holdup of a Tulsa, Okla., household Friday were captured a few hours later at a farmhouse where they briefly held a mother and her three children as hostages.

A posse and tear gas equipment had been summoned to the farm when the pair surrendered. A third member of the holdup gang was still being sought.

When the two men were first spotted, setting off a 100-mile per hour chase which ended near the farmhouse, officers thought they were fugitives from the Jasper county jail at Carthage, Mo. The three jailbreakers were sought by a posse near Plevin, Mo., Thursday night.

However, officers identified the two as Marco Antonio Roggio, 20, and Charles King Vanamburgh, 23, both of New York.

Oklahoma crime bureau agent Golden Kennedy said they were believed to have participated in the invasion of the Tulsa home. Three gunmen entered the home, accosting Mrs. T. Harold Burton, wife of an oilman, and her mother, Mrs. Albin Burton. They fled in the Burton's automobile, taking $125 in cash, two wrist watches and a shotgun.

Song Titles Give Key For Survival In Holiday Traffic

(Editor's Note: Ezra Adams, Morning World staff writer, after pondering the odds against survival in the rush of holiday traffic this weekend, came up with some advice in the form of song titles.)

I'M SINCERE when I say there may be a STORY UNTOLD if you heed the SONG OF A DREAMER while driving your car in a CARELESS manner during this long Labor Day weekend and take the attitude of I DON'T CARE.

Mississippi Newspapers Condemn Kidnap-Slaying Of Chicago Negro Boy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three Mississippi newspapers condemned the kidnap-slaying of a 15-year-old Chicago Negro boy, Emmett Louis Till, and called for vigorous prosecution.

The Jackson Daily News condemned the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People just as strongly for calling the killing a "lynching," and not putting the same label on the murder of a New York Negro man by four white boys.

The Clarksdale Press Register said, "Those who kidnaped and murdered Till have dealt the reputation of the South and Mississippi a savage blow."

"It is a blow from which we can recover only by accepting this violent and insane challenge to our laws and by prosecuting vigorously the individuals responsible for this crime."

"If conviction with the maximum penalty of the law cannot be secured in this heinous crime, then Mississippi may as well burn all its law books and close its courts, for we cannot then stand before the nation and the world as a self-governing state capable of making and enforcing its own laws and (Continued On Second Page)

Worst Heat Continues To Wither California

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2—UP—The worst heat wave in Southern California's history continued through its third day Friday with the temperature soaring to a blistering 108 degrees.

The searing heat had residents gasping for relief but Friday's high was within two degrees of the all-time record set Thursday when the mercury climbed to 110 degrees.

The 108 degrees made Friday the third warmest day in the history of the local weather bureau, surpassed only by Thursday's record temperature and the former record of 109 degrees set July 25, 1891. Friday's mark was equaled on Sept. 21, 1885.

The third serious brush fire in the three-day heat wave was responsible for the loss of at least four lives in a blaze in the La Habra heights area on the southeast edge of Los Angeles county.

Capture Of 18 Israelis Claimed In Latest Clash

TEL AVIV, Sept. 2—UP—Egypt Friday announced its forces had captured 18 Israelis and troop movements were reported throughout the Arab nations bordering Israel.

The terse report from Cairo on the capture of the Israelis added only that the 18 were being held hostage. Further details might have been delayed by censorship.

It was not known immediately when the Israelis were captured or whether the action would upset the cease-fire agreement the United Nations is trying to bring about between Israel and Egypt.

Unofficial reports from Damascus, meanwhile, said the Syrian army was massing on Israel's border and the headquarters staff had been alerted to stand by for further orders.

In Cairo, thousands of heavily equipped Egyptian troops were reported pouring across the Suez Canal en route to the embattled Gaza strip border.

The small, but well equipped Jordan Arab legion also was reported moving up to Israeli border ready for emergency action.

Slain Chemist Actually Killed In N. Carolina

BOONE, N. C., Sept. 2—UP—A slain Chicago chemist whose body was found in Kentucky actually was killed in North Carolina and murder charges "in all probability" will be placed against a young couple now held in the Southwest, authorities said Friday.

The circumstances of the death of Lewis A. Finn, 60, had not yet been disclosed. The FBI announced after an "extensive investigation" that his death occurred in Watauga county, N. C.

But the federal agency, without disclosing its evidence, said it had no jurisdiction in the actual slaying and therefore was turning its findings over to state authorities.

"We're beginning to investigate the thing now," said State Solicitor James Farthing at Boone. "And in all probability a murder charge will be filed against" Leonard LaFond, 20, and Jo Anne Severson, 18.

LaFond was being held at Las Cruces, N. M., and Miss Severson at San Antonio, Tex., both on federal automobile theft charges. Finn's credentials were found on LaFond when he was arrested on Aug. 10 and he admitted he had disposed of the missing Chicago man's car.

After further questioning LaFond and Miss Severson told how they had disposed of Finn's body in Mammoth Cave National Park, Ky., where it was found Thursday.

Dr. Max Forkosh, Chicago dentist and Richard Finn of Denver, the slain man's brother, flew to Mammoth Cave to make positive identification.

The FBI quoted the young suspects as saying they found Finn's car abandoned on a Kentucky roadside. The federal agency did not say whether the couple claimed to have found Finn already dead in the car. The FBI released only information relating to the car theft.

2 Slander Suits May Be Filed By Mrs. Tina Clark

Mrs. Tina Clark, former principal of Ransom Elementary School in West Monroe, is planning two slander suits for filing in the Fourth district court regarding an accusation that she is or has been a Communist, according to Harvey Fields, Farmerville attorney.

Mrs. Clark agreed in a letter submitted to the school board Friday that she would accept the principalship of the Millsaps School. She had been previously assigned to the post, but later the designation was cancelled by the board and she was offered a teacher's position at the principal's salary.

It is thought that if the board does not reinstate her on the payroll as a principal, Mrs. Clark will take her case to the district court.

The slander suits, Fields said, would be filed as separate issues to other litigation.

Reckless Feline Holds Up Traffic

A tieup of traffic on South Grand Street yesterday morning halted motorists as effectively as a power failure. But this time the trouble was animal not mechanical.

The flow of traffic was abruptly halted by a mother cat.

Coming up from the river she decided to carry one of her kittens across the street. A host of business and professional men took time out from the cares of the day to stare in fascination as the cat took her offspring across South Grand and deposited the young one in a parking lot at the intersection of Wood and South Grand Streets.

The white and yellow cat held the kitten in the conventional feline manner, by the neck, although the kitten was almost as big as the mother.

As traffic stopped for the cat and her burden, she stalked across the street like a reckless pedestrian, looking neither to the right or left.

Large Photograph Zhukov Presented To Ike Displayed

DENVER, Sept. 2 —UP— The summer White House Friday displayed a large full-color family photograph which Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov sent his old friend President Eisenhower as a "thank you" token for a wedding gift to Zhukov's daughter.

The gold - framed photograph effectively blasted reports in some European press circles that Zhukov has no daughters and that Mr. Eisenhower was hoaxed into sending the wedding present during the recent Geneva conference.

The picture shows the uniformed, beribboned Zhukov sitting proudly with his wife, two daughters, grand - daughter and one son-in-law in the best posed tradition of family portraits.

However, it does not show the new bridegroom of buxom, blonde daughter Ella. She was married to Kliment Petrovich Voroshilov the day Zhukov left Russia for the Geneva meeting. The White House said they are now honeymooning in Crimea.

Mr. Eisenhower received the photograph several days ago, along with a brief note from Zhukov voicing thanks for the wedding present. The note was not made public.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said the note and the picture were the only communication between the two old friends of World War II days since Geneva. He said Mr. Eisenhower has asked U.S. Ambassador Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen in Moscow to convey his thanks for the picture.

Israeli authorities were inclined to believe the attack on the well near where the two Egyptian jet fighters were shot down was another act of sabotage by Egyptian commandoes operating inside Israeli territory.

Gen. E. L. M. Burns, chief of the UN truce commission, worked to get Israel and Egypt to sign a formal cease fire.

Israel said Thursday it would agree to the cease fire only if Egypt gave guarantees it would stop all aggressive actions.

If the capture of the 18 Israelis came after the Israeli demand, it might hurt Burns' efforts.

The only other incident reported in the border area since an air battle Thursday was the blowing up of a well in the Israeli Negev region. On Wednesday, an Israeli armored force had struck across the Egyptian border to destroy military post at Khan Yunis. Forty persons were reported killed and 40 injured in the raid.

Israeli authorities were inclined to believe the attack on the well near where the two Egyptian jet fighters were shot down was another act of sabotage by Egyptian commandoes operating inside Israeli territory.

The Israeli government stood by Thursday's acceptance of the UN-proposed cease-fire on condition Egypt ceases all attacks.

Albert Grant, a UN spokesman in Jerusalem, said he believed there was a good chance the cease-fire that actually has been in effect since Thursday would not be upset over the well incident since nobody was killed.

The Press Register said it has confidence "in the infinite sense of justice and the outraged conscience of a vast majority of Mississippians."

"We believe it will assert itself through the courts in this case, and if it does prevail, then we will have scored a double victory - a triumph of law over individual anarchy and a blow at those agencies outside of the South that constantly malign us."

The McComb Enterprise-Journal commented: "crimes such as the one reported in the Mississippi Delta... certainly injure the cause of every white citizen, in Mississippi who is working earnestly to preserve segregation in our schools."

And in a letter to the editor of the Enterprise-Journal, Dr. Robert Brumfield, McComb physician, declared:

"It appears to me that now is the time for every citizen who loves the state of Mississippi to 'stand up and be counted' before hoodlum white trash brings us to destruction."

"The trouble in Mississippi is not the Negro but it is the white trash who, because they can vote, are given a pat on the back and a wink of the eye by our political leaders."

The doctor, who admitted he was "sucked" into membership in the Ku Klux Klan about 30 years ago, added, "it is high time politicians stop running for office on a platform of hatred but should run on a platform of understanding and sympathy for all mankind."

The Jackson Daily News said, "every responsible citizen in the state of Mississippi agrees that the murder was a brutal, senseless crime..."

"The kidnap-killing must have been the act of a depraved mind, or minds. The people of Money, where the crime took place, were shocked and appalled."

This means the farewell to American freedom.'"

"As he handed me th paper he said, 'I'm sorry,' and tears came to his eyes."

Large Photograph Zhukov Presented To Ike Displayed

DENVER, Sept. 2 —UP— The summer White House Friday displayed a large full-color family photograph which Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov sent his old friend President Eisenhower as a "thank you" token for a wedding gift to Zhukov's daughter.

The gold - framed photograph effectively blasted reports in some European press circles that Zhukov has no daughters and that Mr. Eisenhower was hoaxed into sending the wedding present during the recent Geneva conference.

The picture shows the uniformed, beribboned Zhukov sitting proudly with his wife, two daughters, grand - daughter and one son-in-law in the best posed tradition of family portraits.

However, it does not show the new bridegroom of buxom, blonde daughter Ella. She was married to Kliment Petrovich Voroshilov the day Zhukov left Russia for the Geneva meeting. The White House said they are now honeymooning in Crimea.

Mr. Eisenhower received the photograph several days ago, along with a brief note from Zhukov voicing thanks for the wedding present. The note was not made public.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said the note and the picture were the only communication between the two old friends of World War II days since Geneva. He said Mr. Eisenhower has asked U.S. Ambassador Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen in Moscow to convey his thanks for the picture.

Funeral Services Saturday For 18 Year-Old Girl

BASTROP, Sept. 2 — (Special) — Funeral services will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. for Katherine Ann Haden, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hayden, of Bastrop, who was killed in an automobile wreck late Thursday.

Services will be held in the chapel of Blackwell-Golden Funeral home with Dr. O. M. Anderson, pastor of the Bastrop Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be in Christ Church cemetery.

The three other passengers in the fatal automobile were reported out of danger.

Attendants at Bastrop General hospital said that Ernest Decker, 23, reported to have been driver of the automobile, was being treated for a fractured vertebra in the neck, and lacerations. Charles Terry, 23, suffered a fractured pelvis and multiple contusions.

Marilyn Gifford, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gifford, received only minor injuries and was to be released from the hospital Friday.

The Morehouse parish sheriff's office said that the automobile in which the four were riding went out of control on a bad curve on the Mt. Pleasant road near here. The car, which was almost demolished, rolled into a ditch on the side of the road.

The sheriff's office said that the two couples were evidently just riding around.

Both Miss Hayden and Miss Gifford were 1955 graduates of Bastrop high school. The two men were reported to have only recently been released from the service.

She is survived by her parents, one sister, Mrs. John Dawson, Henry Doss, of San Antonio and Mrs. Charles Gray, of Bastrop, and one aunt, Mrs. Q. C. Shores, of Pine Bluff, Ark.

New Law Gives Advantages In Army Reserves

Major George L. Whitmeyer, unit advisor for the army reserve in this area, announced today, that enlistments under the armed forces reserve act of 1955 recently signed by President Eisenhower are now being accepted at the United States army reserve training at Selman Field, here in Monroe.

This entire program is a competitive one. There is a quota of 90,000 enlistees for the first year beginning August 9th when the act was signed into effect. Once that quota has been reached, there will be no more enlistments for quite some time. Major Whitmeyer urges those interested to contact the army reserve at Bldg. T-39-2, Selman Field or call 9960. The reserve training center at Selman Field will be open Monday through Friday during the hours of 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., and on Monday and Thursday nights between 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m., with the exception of Labor Day.

Bridges Elected Area Commander

JENA, Sept. 2 — (Special) — Legion posts in Winn and LaSalle parishes recently elected Bill Bridges, Jena town councilman and newly-elected commander of the Jena Post, as area commander for district eight.

The election of Bridges to the area post, heading up the American Legion movement in Winnfield, Olla, Tullos and Jena, took place at a special called meeting of district legion officials and was by acclamation.

Mrs. C. W. Culp Dies In Auto Accident

Mrs. C. W. Culp, wife of Dr. Culp, former pastor of the Queensboro Baptist Church in Shreveport, was killed in an automobile accident outside of Colorado Springs early yesterday.

Dr. Culp was also injured in the accident, but the extent of his injuries were not known.

Mrs. Culp was the sister of Miss Beulah Doerr, former educational director at the First Baptist Church in West Monroe.

The Culp's were slated to visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lester in West Monroe this week.

John W. Gilbert Seeks Re-Election

LAKE PROVIDENCE, Sept. 2 — (Special) — Announcing today as a candidate for re-election to the post he now holds, East Carroll Parish Sheriff John W. Gilbert, said that he would stand on his record as sheriff of East Carroll parish since June 1, 1952.

The following statement was issued by the candidate:

"I have conducted the affairs of my office to the benefit of all people of East Carroll parish. I have rendered the same service to everyone, old or young, rich or poor, in the same manner and will continue to render the services of my office for all the people of the parish and not a chosen few.

"I have cooperated fully with all branches of law enforcement of city, parish, state and federal, and in return I have received wonderful cooperation and huge benefits. Without the cooperation of others my job would be most difficult and without satisfactory results. Working with the city officials, we have instituted and put into operation 24 hour police radio service for the town and parish. This not only increased the efficiency of the city police department and my office, but is of great benefit to law enforcement in the entire state.

"I have cooperated closely with the local troopers in protecting lives and property on our highways. I have attended strictly to the duties for which I was elected. I have not interfered with any of the other officials of the city, parish or state. I have cooperated with other officials and all civic organizations on all projects beneficial to the public, when asked to do so.

"I keep a blood type list of some 300 persons and always stand ready to serve in time of sickness or death. I feel the people are entitled to this service and as a public official I feel it my duty to render this service.

"I devote my full time to the duties of my office. I do not own any property other than my home in the town of Lake Providence. I have no farm, cattle or other interest that requires any of my attention.

"I will conduct a clean campaign and will not become involved in any other political race, neither ward, parish or state, other than my own. I will not deal in personalities in my campaign and I ask my supporters to refrain from personal attacks on my opponents, as I feel it is unnecessary, and will not meet with the approval of the public.

"I solicit the vote and support of every one regardless of their political affiliations. I will attempt to see each voter personally during my campaign and stand willing to discuss any problem that might arise pertaining to the duties of my office."

Long And The Right-To-Work Law

Former Governor Earl Long, a candidate for governor in the next Louisiana election, has done a lot of fence-straddling during the months that he has been an announced candidate.

His latest example of riding with the hounds and running with the hare concerns the right-to-work bill enacted by the last Legislature and signed by Governor Kennon.

Mr. Long said, in essence, that he would have to consider this law further before making up his mind as to whether it is good or bad.

Now, the right-to-work law rests upon principals embodied in the American Constitution and the Bill of Rights. It has been enacted by 18 states; and, despite the bitter and violent opposition of some union bosses, it has been upheld by the Supreme Court of the United States.

It is pending in many other states, actively before their legislatures.

It embodies a double guarantee, in keeping with the American tradition—that no man or woman be denied work because he belongs to a union, or because he refuses union membership.

It says that a man's right to work is fundamental and that it supercedes his interests as a unionist or a non-unionist; and whether he leans one way or the other, the state and society should not leave him and his family to starve.

The right-to-work law has not hurt organized labor, if its membership be polled. It has been in effect for years in a number of states; and unionism is strong and robust in every one of these.

It has had a terrific impact upon enforced unionism—including centers where a man looking for a job has been hijacked by union racketeers.

The labor unions in America, if they could be rid of crooks and exploiters, perhaps would welcome right-to-work laws in every state. This would put them on a more healthy competitive basis. Countless thousands of their members would welcome such a change.

Louisiana voters, already deeply interested in the gubernatorial campaign, wait patiently for Mr. Long to make up his mind whether in his belief the right-to-work law of Louisiana is good or bad.

North Louisiana, and Monroe, invite him to visit us and tell us whether he is for or against this law.

We, in this part of the state, have very little sympathy for political fence-straddlers.

In fairness to the former governor, it should be pointed out that detailed discussion of gubernatorial campaign issues is just now getting under way. Mr. Long perhaps has avoided these discussions purposely, like a shrewd campaign general, pending the time when the political picture was clarified, and he could see who his opponents were to be.

But the day approaches rapidly when every candidate for state office, including those running for legislative posts, must declare himself one way or the other on the right-to-work law. The voters are entitled to honest answers, expressed without equivocation. This issue has been discussed and debated for a number of years, and the State Legislature enacted a right-to-work bill, and Gov. Kennon signed it; and there is no middle ground, no dug-out for political aspirants to dive into, insofar as this issue is concerned. Candidates have only two answers—they favor retention of the law, as it stands, or they favor its repeal.

Which does Mr. Long favor?

Titanic 'Battle' Due In Louisiana

The largest atomic-age military maneuver in American history will be staged in Louisiana this fall—"Exercise Sagebrush."

It will last a month and employ 140,000 members of the Army and Air Force. It will be a joint effort of the Continental Army Command and the Tactical Air Command. It will rely heavily upon chemical, bacteriological and electronic combat weapons. It will train the Army and the Air Force in the use of nuclear weapons, in the air and on the ground; and test new strategies and tactics which have been evolved to meet the complexities of fire-power multiplied a million fold by nuclear weapons.

A group of 500 officers and men of the two services, under direction of Gen. C. P. Weyland, chief of the Tactical Air Command, has been working at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia since February to prepare and plan the maneuver. The group will transfer its headquarters to Camp Polk, La., Oct. 31.

Gen. Weyland, maneuver director and unified commander of the exercise, explains that the purpose of Sagebrush "is to train units and personnel of the Air Force and Army in the employment of special weapons of warfare, and in joint-service operations against an enemy with numerically superior ground and air units."

Army units will maneuver in a 7,000,000-acre district reaching from the Sabine River to Opelousas, and from Lake Charles to Monroe. Air force units will be based in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama. Twelve hundred military aircraft will take part, along with thousands of pieces of heavy ground equipment.

The hypothetical situation involved is this:

Aggressor forces have secured a foothold in the Gulf Coast area. The United Nations has intervened and obtained an uneasy truce. This is broken when aggressor fighters attack a U. S. reconnaissance aircraft. Outnumbered in the air and on the ground, U. S. forces are forced to retreat, fighting a delaying action. Finally they reach defensive positions north of the Red River, where they regroup. Strengthened and reconstituted, they fight their way back across the river, to launch a counter-offensive against the aggressor. They are given air support.

The maneuver will simulate actual combat as closely as possible.

There will be stirring times in Louisiana before long.

George Sokolsky

THESE DAYS

The Hoover Revolution

Herbert Hoover has had three administrative positions in the government of the United States: food administrator under Woodrow Wilson; secretary of commerce under Presidents Harding and Coolidge; President of the United States for one term.

In these three positions over a period of 16 years, he familiarized himself with the structure and procedures of administration. In addition, he spent from 1933 to the present day studying intensively problems of administration. Altogether he has been in public life 41 years. In 1947, President Truman turned to him to organize and head a Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. The President, the Senate and the House of Representatives each provided a third of the membership of this commission which was nonpartisan.

The first Hoover Commission was limited to management problems. Nearly 75 percent of its recommendations have been adopted in whole or in part.

The second Hoover Commission, appointed by President Eisenhower, also consisting of members provided by the President, the Senate and the House of Representatives, had a wider mandate in the Act of Congress bringing it into existence. It was asked to make recommendations eliminating nonessential services and functions and activities which are competitive with private enterprise. It was authorized to make recommendations which would reconsider the value of activities and institutions of government which came into existence during the emergencies of depression and war.

The commission was non-partisan in character, consisting of Herbert Hoover, Herbert Brownell, Jr., James A. Farley, Arthur S. Flemming, Senator Styles Bridges, Senator John L. McClellan, Robert G. Storey, Representative Clarence J. J. Brown, Representative Chet Holifield, Joseph P. Kennedy, Sidney A. Mitchell and Solomon C. Hollister. At no time did the commission divide on a political basis, although there was plenty of division of opinion and dissenting reports.

The principal criticism of the Hoover Commission's recommendations is not that they are not based on accurate data but that in effect they would work a revolution in the sense that they would undo the trends toward socialization which go by the term, the New Deal. (For socialization, they use the term, social welfare.) It has been suggested that what Hoover is trying to do is to liquidate the social revolution of the past 22 years.

On the one hand, the citizens are told that we must reduce taxes, reduce the national debt, balance the budget, and produce efficient government; on the other hand, we are told that no measures taken during the dangerous period of depression or during the expansionist period of war must in any way be changed, limited or abolished. A vested interest has grown up in the purposes and institutions of the depression-war periods.

Hoover takes the position that the depression-war periods and their administrative consequences need to be reviewed and that what is no longer needed, what is duplicative, what interferes with the American economy, what is unnecessarily burdensome upon the American taxpayer should be abolished or at least amalgamated.

This position embarrasses senators, representatives and even the administration who have to face those whose private interests benefit by government extravagance and inefficiency. On the other hand, some of the recommendations run counter to doctrinaire positions held, with sincerity, by some citizens. So there is a fight in the offing.

Some of those opposed to the Hoover reports assumed that after they were filed with Congress, most of them would be forgotten. After all, these reports and their recommendations go to various congressional committees where they can die in pigeon-holes. But Herbert Hoover, in his 82nd year, is a cagey citizen who knows his way in Washington.

And so a Citizens Committee for the Hoover Reports has been organized nationwide. It goes into every state and into every congressional district to alert those who are sympathetic with its recommendations to fight for them. In many places, some of the recommendations will be rejected; but in others, the Hoover group produces pressures upon senators and representatives, Republicans and Democrats, who seek re-election. This may be very embarrassing in the 1956 campaign. (Copyright, 1955, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Our Best Export

Labor Secretary James Mitchell says, "As Labor Day draws near more Americans, making higher wages, are buying more things than ever before in history."

If I were to send a Labor Day message to the good people who happen to live in other parts of the world, I don't think I would emphasize the "things." I would not emphasize automatic orange juicers to people who have no oranges.

I might increase our own appreciation of what we have by mentioning that there are more automatic mechanical home refrigerators in Kalamazoo, Mich., than there are in all of England, plus all of France, and with the cities of Berlin and Moscow thrown in. But I don't think I'd advertise our refrigerators to people who have no food.

To the Indonesians, one car for every three people sounds silly, for they've no place to go and no roads to get there on.

Automatic washing machines have no meaning for those who wear loin cloths of goatskin.

The have - not nations cannot appreciate our sheer stockings, which are neither durable nor warm, and we are only helping the jealous have - had nations to hate us more.

What we have to offer to the world, by example, is freedom. And that is all.

Freedom is work and play and own and pray. To win, lose or go broke and bounce back. The word "freedom" translates the same in any land where men see their property lost to police, pirates, or tax collectors.

They don't need our elevators, escalators or automatic calculators, but there is something in every human that makes freedom sweet.

Freedom.

Or is it perhaps that this priceless product is in such short supply that we have none left for export. That we have used our recklessly and without replenishing the store. That we entrusted our freedom to the hands of selfish men, who traded it, bit by bit, for perfume, mink coats, dollars and deep freezers and that now that's all we have left.

Perhaps. If so, we've been preaching a good sermon and living a bad one. And the blind have led the blind almost to the brink of complete disaster. It's time to quit thinking we can have friends or peace or security or potatoes, without earning them.

You'll have good neighbors only if you are one. If you keep your kids at home, your garbage can covered, and your hedges high. It's time for us to stop finger-pointing and take a good look in the mirror. To measure every political proposal by how much of our personal freedom it's going to cost.

But it'll have to be the working man who'll lead us, for he's the politician's boss.

Every time we get in trouble we have to work our way out of it. And the men who can straighten bent nails and pump grease - the men who've kept the books and carried the guns and oiled the machines and bought the bonds that have won our wars... they'll have to re-teach us how. Then America might yet again be a beacon light in the darkness of humanity's despair.

If others admire us, they'll imitate us. If they see us continuing to chloroform our national conscience, then they're going to start shooting at us. And you know something... I think maybe we'll deserve it.

Now let's get with it. We had a good start in this New World because we got rolling with a man - size push. If the momentum's spent itself, then all we need is more men and more push. And this Labor Day is as good a time as any to start. (Copyright 1955, General Features Corp.)

PORTRAITS

Just Give Me Time

I LOVE you not forever or... For ever and a day... But only for this moment and... The words you chose to say... I thank you for your compliments... But you and I just met... And I would not want you or I... To have the least regret... So let us wait a little while... Let both of us delay... Until we are quite certain... If whatever words we say... Give us a little time to think... Until we know for sure... That we have reason to believe... Our marriage will endure... And then if you still want me, dear... Just say one word to me... And I will be your own for life... And all eternity.

WE'RE EXPECTING ANOTHER VISITOR

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

A Just Respect

There are a couple of phrases women use that I resent keenly: "I'm just a housewife." "I'm only a homemaker." Why any wife and mother should speak of her career in that tone, as if she did not respect her position, did not feel the dignity of her place in society, is beyond me.

Time was, in this land, when marriage and motherhood was the ambition of the young woman, an honored ambition and an honorable achievement. Women then did not work outside their homes. Then, gradually the business world opened to them and year by year more women entered it until today women are happily, usefully at work beside the men. All to the good for them. But—

What is there in an office job, in a professional job, any outside-home job that is so glamorous as to cast the housewife and mother in the shade, make her inferior to the outside worker? Nothing whatever.

The outside worker is no more intelligent, no more able, and in no way more important than the woman who makes a career of home, husband and children. Think what it takes to do that. There is a man to keep happy, to feed, house, care for and love. There are children, to bear, rear, send into the world in fine health physically and spiritually.

Consider the various fields of work a mother masters today. Child care in itself is a career. Cooking is a profession and a highly skilled and essential one. There is the financial side to homemaking. It is the mother who must get the full value of every dollar that crosses her hands, and the American mother does just that. It is she who looks ahead and sees who needs what next month or next year, who sees that there is provision for shelter, clothes, health, recreation and education. Dad supplies the money and plans with mother and she executes the whole.

That is who our housewives and mothers are; household executives. Executives in offices are V.I.P.'s. Well, mothers are too if they would just accept the dignity and power of their office, stand up tall and claim it.

One cannot picture a fourth vice-president of a corporation or the manager of a department store replying to the question, "What do you do?" with, "I'm just the vice-president of Rags and Riches," or "I'm only the manager of Feathers Incorporated" in meek and lowly tones. No sir. Those words will come with a ring of pride in achievement, as they should.

Then that is the way they should sound when a woman who heads a going business like a Home says, "I am a Housewife." People take other people at their own valuation so mothers and wives should stand up tall and uphold the dignity and the honor of their position. It is tops in America.

Simple foods are the best foods for children. How to encourage your child to eat the proper foods, and how to substitute a food he likes for one he does not is explained by Dr. Patri in Booklet No. 303, "Feeding Children." IN WASHINGTON

La. REA Gets $177,750

WASHINGTON — A total of $177,750 in federal loans went to Louisiana in fiscal 1955 for expenditure on its Rural Electrification Administration generation and transmission program.

A total of 45 transmission miles were provided by the loans, the Department of Agriculture reported.

Nationwide, REA loans for such facilities totaled $41.1 million during the year ending June 30. This compares with loans totaling $31.2 million in the previous 12 months.

The department said REA loans for generation and transmission are made only where applicants show that the new facilities will reduce power costs or are needed because of a power shortage in the area.

The fiscal 1955 loans will permit rural systems financed by REA to add 10 new generating units and 1,724 miles of transmission lines. The new units will have a capacity of 88,940 kilowatts and will boost the total generating plant capacity called for in all REA loans to 1,280,814 kw. Of that total, plants with a capacity of 897,023 kw were in operation as of July 1. This included 140,995 kw added during fiscal 1955.

Ancher Nelsen, REA administrator, said it is estimated that 1,000 borrowers will double by 1965 and more than triple by 1975. "Helping borrowers find ways to meet these mounting power needs is one of REA's principal responsibilities," Administrator Nelsen said. "The borrowers still purchase about 85 per cent of the power they distribute, either from electric companies or from public agencies, but they generate the other 15 per cent and there continue to be cases where borrower-owned generation facilities are needed."

"We are finding from experience that at this stage in the program it is usually advantageous to integrate or interconnect REA-financed facilities with those of other power suppliers. In most power supply situations, that turns out to be the approach that assures dependability of service and lowest cost. In any case, the plan that offers farmers the best deal is the plan that gets REA approval."

Nationally, the 1955 loans were divided $21.3 million for transmission and $19.8 million for generation. Bulk of the funds went to the federated power cooperatives.

Nine of these cooperatives in eight states borrowed $29.8 million, or 73 per cent of the total. They propose to add six generating units with a total capacity of 87,750 kw. They also plan to add 661 miles of transmission line. In 1954 loans to the federated cooperatives amounted to $13 million to add 60,000 kw of capacity and 92 miles of transmission line.

Facts Worth Knowing

The sailing ship Flying Cloud sailed from New York to San Francisco around South America, a distance of 15,091 nautical miles, in 89 days in 1854.

The S. S. United States set the world speed record for steamships on its maiden voyage in 1952. It averaged 35.59 knots (about 41 mph) crossing the Atlantic Ocean west to east in three days, 10 hours and 40 minutes.

The first liner of the Cunard Lines the S. S. Britannia, required 14 days, 8 hours, to cross from Liverpool to New York in 1840. Cunard's Queen Mary crossed Cherbourg, France, to New York in 4 days, 12 hours 24 minutes on her maiden voyage in 1936.

Martin Heinrich Klaproth, a German chemist, discovered uranium in 1789.

The first All-Star baseball game between the American and National Leagues was played July 6, 1933, in Chicago.

Yellowstone National Park, the nation's oldest, was created in 1872. The newest is Everglades National Park, created in 1947.

Twenty of our 28 national parks are located west of the Mississippi River. The territories of Hawaii and Alaska each have one national park.

Two out of three cars on the highway today are equipped with radios, compared with one out of three in 1941.

The average 1955 car is only 2.7 inches longer than the average 1941 car.

Worry Clinic

By Dr. George W. Crane

Clark has discovered a big psychiatric secret. Sharing your problems divides their weight! So talk out your worries in prayer to God Almighty and you'll find that your load is lighter, even if He doesn't reveal a complete solution at once.

Case P-330: Clark H., aged 31, is the clergyman whom I quoted yesterday who does a great deal of counseling with parishioners. "Dr. Crane, I find that after people tell me their problems, they feel much better, even if I haven't offered them anything very unique in the way of advice."

"Oh, if I can't help them otherwise, I at least pray with them for a few minutes."

"Often they meet me later and thank me profusely for having solved their problems. Yet in most cases I didn't do a thing except listen and pray with them."

"How do you explain their almost magical belief in my curative therapy?"

The act of confessing a worry immediately divides its weight.

For when you share a secret with anybody else, the latter becomes subconsciously your team mate.

Furthermore, the act of facing the issue and actually stating your difficulty, often banishes its threatening nature, for most dreams seem far worse than they really are when you turn the cold light of analysis upon them.

That's why it is wise for you to write out your problem in advance, if you are calling on your clergyman or your doctor, for then you finally face it and learn exactly what help you need.

The usual patient, however, tries to run around in circles and refuses to face his trouble.

He may shed tears and express grief or shock, yet still keep going in circles. Insanity is just an extreme case of this circular type of thinking.

One advantage of shock treatment is the fact it straightens one's thinking so he can again think in a straight line.

Furthermore, when a patient confesses something which he thinks nobody else ever thought or did since Adam and Eve, he often finds that the doctor or clergyman has heard the very same problem many times previously.

So when he is told that fact, he is partly cured. For it is surprising how much more relaxed you become when you find 1,000,000 others are in the same boat with you regarding your fears and phobias or sins and sex habits.

As Clark also pointed out, some problems can't be completely cured or solved. Time is often too far along to do that.

"Sure, we could change your mean, caustic husband," we doctors often may think, "if you'd just run time backwards 50 years and give him to us as a newborn babe."

"Then we'd train him to have a proper regard for womanhood and to be considerate and cooperative, instead of the selfish adult brat that he now happens to be."

But, obviously, we can't reverse the calendar 50 years, so we "Yes" the distraught wife along. Then we suggest she transfer some of her energy into church activities.

And if they are still arguing over sexual matters, then we offer her some advice thereon and maybe send her home with the booklet on "How to Prevent Impotence," which has changed many bitter, frustrated men into magnanimous, generous mates.

But we can't give written guarantees, for if a husband refuses to cooperate, he usually can no more be cured than a dope addict or chronic drunk who also refuses to try.

But sharing your problems divides their weight so always talk them over with God via your prayers.

MRS. HENRIETTA K. WARNER
RAYVILLE, September 2 (Special) — Mrs. Henrietta K. Warner, 83, of Bastrop, route 4, died Friday morning in a Bastrop Hospital. Tonight funeral services were incomplete, but will be under the direction of the Mulhearn Funeral Home of Rayville. Interment will be in the Midway Cemetery near Epps.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Zora Kaiser, Gabbs, Nevada, and Mrs. Evelyn Butler, Shreveport; two sons, Clair Warner, Lake Providence, and Louis Warner, Bastrop; one brother, John Lewis, Epps; three sisters, Mrs. Lillie Payne, Mrs. Hattie Payne, and Mrs. Mabel Payne, all of Route 4, Rayville; thirteen grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren.

The remains will be carried to the Blackwell-Golden Funeral Home in Bastrop and will remain there until time of services.

Many Offices Here To Observe Holiday

Public offices in Monroe, West Monroe and Ouchita Parish will be closed Monday in observance of Labor Day, a state holiday.

Those closing will include all banks in the Twin Cities; both city halls, with the exception of police and fire departments; all offices in the court house except the sheriff's department, and the post offices.

Postal officials said that letters posted will be sent out of town but that there would be no city mail delivery on Monday and no window service.

Long Shifts Start
For State Police
As Holiday Near

Speeding and reckless driving will be the targets of Louisiana State Police at district F in Monroe during the holiday weekend, said Captain M. E. Kidd, whose officers are beginning 12 hours shifts at midnight Friday in an effort to check traffic accidents.

Supplementing this force will be three unmarked automobiles with plainclothes officers patrolling the highways and three airplanes which will drop safety leaflets and aid in patrol.

The leaflets will remind the motorist to be careful saying: "You are a potential killer if you speed, drive recklessly or drive drunk on Labor Day weekend."

State police normally work eight hours shifts but will go on duty for 12 hours each shift until 8 a.m. Tuesday.

City Police will be alert for similar violations said, Chief of Police, M. L. Peters of Monroe. "On holiday week ends," he said, "our downtown traffic is actually less than normal so our forces will be concentrated on the thoroughfares."

Substantial Gain
In Tax Revenues
Seen For Parish

Sheriff Bailey Grant's office announced yesterday that parish tax revenues for 1955 are expected to total $2,167,017.99. Civil department deputies in the tax collecting office revealed the amount Ouachita Parish taxpayers must pay before Jan. 1, 1956.

Deputies were preparing for the big push in fall collections as their figures showed an increase $3,820,930 over the 1954 overall assessment of $84,198,290.

The potential increase for 1955, has been due more to a boost in assessed values than to a tax increase. The tax rate has been increased only by one-third mill over 1954.

Collections during 1954 totaled $2,110,341.10, a remarkable 99.88 per cent collection of assessed taxes.

Tax rolls are usually filed late in October with payments continuing to come in until Dec. 31, the deadline to avoid delinquency.

Miss Gustafson Complimented In Tallulah

TALLULAH — The attractive American Legion Home was the scene of a lovely tea-shower on Saturday honoring Miss Mavis Gustafson whose wedding September 3 to James Wallace Bledsoe of New Orleans is an interesting event of the season.

A pink and white color scheme was effectively used with arrangements of crepe myrtle and clematis and quantities of pink roses.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Fred Massey and greeted by Mrs. Manfred Gustafson, mother of the bride-elect and the honor guest who was becomingly attired in a pink and white cotton dress with which she wore a corsage of white blossoms.

The refreshment table covered with an imported cut work cloth was centered with a silver candelabrum holding pink candles and two upright white hearts trimmed with pink tulle and pink carnations. A tiny nosegay of pink flowers, placed in the center of an open Elbie gave an original note. Alternating at the punch service were Mrs. Robert Gaumnitz and Mrs. Owen Moore of Lake Providence.

Presiding at the bride's book were Mrs. Boone Halbach and Mrs. John Earl Martin.

During the afternoon and evening approximately two hundred guests called.

Hostesses for the delightful affair were Mrs. Fred Massey, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. Bill King, Mrs. Norwood Duke, Mrs. Bernice Gideons and Mrs. Charles Brown.

Miss Gustafson was delightfully complimented again when Mrs. F. M. Logue and her daughter, Mrs. John Earl Martin entertained at the Logue home with a kitchen shower on Monday evening.

Games were enjoyed, after which a grocery cart, decorated with a red bow and holding gift packages, was presented to the bride-elect.

Attending with Miss Gustafson were Mrs. M. Gustafson, Mrs. Fred Helton, Mrs. Charles Arneson, Mrs. Scow, Mrs. John Dodson, Mrs. W. H. Erickson, Mrs. Bruce Clark, Mrs. Myron Bailey, Mrs. Byron Bailey, Mrs. Robert Graves, Mrs. Fred Massey, Mrs. Bernice Gideons, Mrs. Billy Keller and Mrs. Owen Moore of Lake Providence.

The American Cancer Society points out that the only approved means of curing cancer today are surgery and radiation by x-ray or radium.

MR. AND MRS. ARCHIE DEMARCUS BUTLER
Miss Smith, Archie Butler
United In Home Ceremony

In the presence of close friends, relatives and neighbors, Miss Barbara Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carroll Smith and Archie

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Butler, Sr., were united in marriage early in August, in an impressive ceremony solemnized in the Butler home in Winnsboro, with the Rev. H. K. Stringer, pastor of Temple Baptist church, officiating.

Miss Betty Miller, accompanied by Mrs. T. B. McDuff, was soloist. The bride was wearing a gown of ivory satin, with chiffon yoke, the lowered waistline and long, pointed sleeves outlined with a hand embroidered in seed pearls. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay bouquet made of a white orchid surrounded with white carnations and net. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Bobbie Wright of Crowville, was dressed in a pink net dress with a tight-fitting, shoulderless bodice and bouffant ballerina-length skirt with apron effect in Chantilly lace. Her slippers were of an exact shade of pink. She carried a nosegay of deeper carnations surrounded with blue tulle caught with blue satin ribbon cascades.

The groom's best man was his brother, William Allen Butler, Jr. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The tea table, overlaid with a white cut-work cloth, at one end, held the crystal punch bowl surrounded with white Rose of Sharon. This was presided over by Mrs. Neil D. Womble and Mrs. W. A. Butler, Jr. On the other end of the table, the three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was served by Miss Mittie Polk.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Smell Sweet And Keep Cool, Too—With Cologne

At this time of the year we are beginning to wish for the lift in the air which heralds approaching fall. We have loved basking in the sun and swimming in lakes or rivers, the ocean or a pond, or wading in a brook, but most of us have had some quite hot weather, and fall seems welcome.

In other words, any very hot days we have from now on will be less endurable and most of us do experience some hot, muggy days during late August and even September.

Certain fragrances actually will lower body temperature. Not only is the fragrance consoling but the alcohol contained in the cologne is cooling. Alcohol speeds up evaporation.

So, after your tub or shower on these last hot days try applying one of the hot weather colognes. These have light fragrances and enough alcoholic content to refresh you greatly. Splash it over your body or apply it to the back of your neck, at your hairline, on your throat, or on the insides of your elbows and wrists.

Soak Feet

When your feet are hot and tired at the end of a hot, wearing day, try soaking them in cool water, and add a dash of cologne. Afterwards dry them well and apply bath powder. Be sure to dry well between the toes and to put some powder there, too. This will give you a big pickup.

Stick - cologne is wonderful to take along in your pocketbook. Rub a bit of this on at the temples

Baptist Church In West Monroe Buys Adjacent Property

Purchase of property back of the First Baptist Church of West Monroe was announced Friday at the offices of the church.

Mrs. Maurice Fleming, secretary, confirmed that the church had purchased a lot, 413 North Pine St. to use as a Sunday school room. The lot contains a 7-room house and a garage apartment. The church plans to use the house as an auxiliary Sunday school room, and continue to rent the apartment.

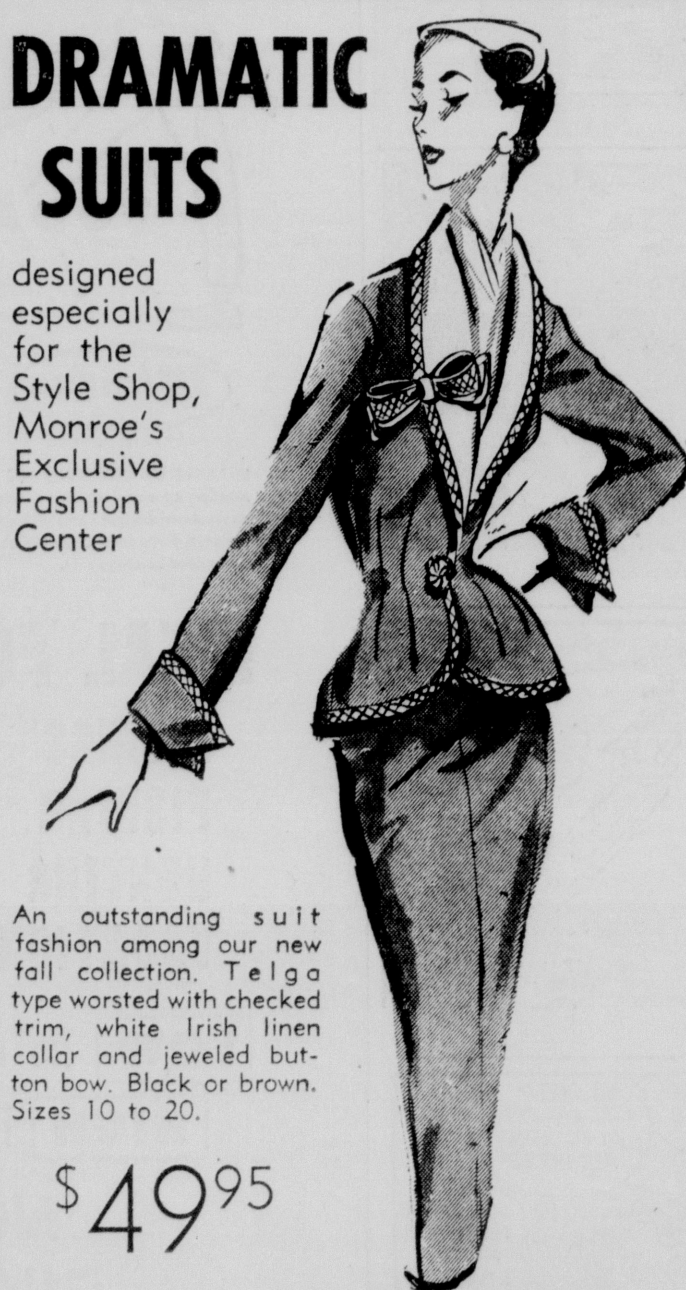

The property was acquired from Dr. C. H. Hill at a cost of $24,400. It includes portions of Lots 1, 2 and 3, of block 12, T. E. Flournoy's first addition to West Monroe.

Flattery From Married Man May Lead To Scorching Experience

By DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX: I wonder if the disgusted wives of wandering husbands ever think of the feelings of the women who have been taken in by their spouses? About one year ago circumstances forced me to return to work, leaving my young son with a sitter during the day. Although my husband knew I never really loved him deeply, ours was a happy relationship.

I hadn't worked in the office long before one of the men, wearing a wedding band, began paying quite a bit of attention to me. Since he was by far the most likeable, pleasant, and attractive man there, I was flattered. Soon we were meeting "accidentally" outside and then I fell in love with him. His wife telephoned me and called me every well-worn phrase she knew. I couldn't deny anything, frankly told my husband I loved Allen and we agreed to a divorce.

In the meantime, Allen was so sincere and disarming, I believed everything he told me. The divorce was granted six months ago. Nothing has changed. This man who claims to love me so desperately makes no attempt at all to be with me. We still work in the same office. Everyone knows what has happened, but who is the "heavy," the vamp? Right, me! I still love him which is the price I pay for deceiving my husband. Allen is smug in his "unhappy" home, well liked and still respected by all his friends. I wonder how many "other women" pay so dearly? Are we not entitled to some justice?

ANSWER: Perhaps there is a moral in this story that will make some girl in the same predicament sit up and take notice before it's too late.

PROFESSIONAL CHARMER

Let's dissect the situation a bit for clarification. Allen, being a good-looking, charming creature, was more or less accustomed to turning on the fascination for any girl. If she fell for it, well and good; if she didn't, he simply went on to the next.

Your reaction was quite a bit more than he expected. He simply had to continue his allure — after all, that's his stock in trade. What does it matter if a home gets broken along the way? At least, it isn't his.

The destruction is done, Allen goes his merry way looking for new feminine worlds to conquer and you are left with no home, no husband, no security, no boy friend — nothing.

To be blunt, you were a fool for flattery. Just a few well-turned phrases meant more than truth or sincerity. You compound your folly by the announcement that you still love Allen. Women so shallow, so absolutely stupid, certainly don't deserve justice. Even their scales can't balance dignity against a bird-brain.

DEAR MISS DIX: I give my pay envelope to my wife unopened — and it's a pretty good one. She gives me $10 to take care of the car, buy cigarettes, breakfast, etc. I use the car extensively in my work and sometimes it makes that $10 look like 30 cents. If I ask for more, I am treated to a session of nagging. The dear girl blows her top. I don't want to change the system, as she does a good job of handling the finances.

Anxious

ANSWER: If your wife would get up to give you breakfast, one expense could be eliminated. Keep a record of a week's expenditures. Maybe that will soften her heart and loosen the purse strings.

N. S. C. Term To Open Sept. 12

NATCHITOCHES, Sept. 2 —(Special)—The 1955 fall semester at Northwestern State College will open Sept. 12.

Incoming freshmen will begin arriving on the campus Sept. 11 prior to two days of special meetings and programs.

Registration will be held on Sept. 14 and 15 and classes will start on Sept. 16, according to Registrar Otis R. Crew.

The largest enrollment in the entire history of the college is predicted for the fall, with the freshman class expected to exceed any previous figure.

Various activities are planned for freshmen, including testing and advising conclaves. A number of social, get-acquainted meetings are also planned, according to Director of Student Relations Dudley G. Fulton.

In addition to a large undergraduate school enrollment, many graduate students are expected to resume studies this fall. In its third semester, the Northwestern graduate program has steadily increased in size since its beginning in January of this year.

Further information pertaining to graduate school particulars may be obtained from the office of Dr. Leo T. Allbritten, dean of the NSC graduate school.

LIONS CLUB HOST

The West Monroe Lions Club acted as host Thursday night to the Monroe Lions Club, when approximately 200 attended a party staged at the Tennessee Gas Company's camp on Cheniere Lake. It was the largest gathering of Lions and Lionesses in the past few years, it was stated.

JUNIOR POLICE

DETROIT — A lot of folk stopped to take a second look at some of the policemen walking beats in suburban Harper Woods this summer. The cops were aged 10 to 15 years.

Harper Woods swore in a Junior Police Force of 28, pledged to "uphold the laws of safety" and to "act in a manner befitting our titles." They were equipped with silver badges and books of tasks.

The tickets were used to notify police and parents of traffic violations by other youngsters and placed on cars which ignored the suburb's campaign against parking on residential streets.

Water In Bayou Is Found Free Of Contamination

A sample of water taken from the Monroe city water supply after numerous fish died in Bayou Desiard here three weeks ago has been found to be free of contamination, according to a report sent to Mayor John E. Coon by Dr. W. Carroll Summer, director of the Ouachita parish health unit.

The fish were found floating dead in the water about August 11, and a sample of water which had already passed through the pumping station at Bayou Desiard was collected a few days later after a report spread that the fish died of arsenic poisoning.

The sample was sent to the chemical toxicological laboratory of the state health department in New Orleans. Friday Dr. Summer reported to Mayor Coon that the water showed no traces of arsenic or insecticides such as BHC or DDT.

Trying to tell her she doesn't remember what happened?

Out of the Mouths of Press Agents: I've been disturbed by the items I get about prominent people, linking them with other prominent people. The end came the other day when five different sources paired 18-year-old Margaret O'Brien with five different men at five different night clubs. I figured if she's that popular maybe I should date her, so I did. Margaret and I— and her mother and two RKO publicists — dined at Luchow's. She says she doesn't know these guys, has never been in a night club except with her mother and others, and the only dates she has in Hollywood are with a crowd of girls and crew - cut boys of her own age and they go dancing at a place that serves ice cream sodas. So how come she's been dancing in every night club in New York with singer Dick Kullman and no mama? (Grown up, she's wonderful.)

No Red Herring: Senator Jenner, the Commie battler, will be feted by the Wall St. Post of the American Legion at the Henry Hudson Hotel on Sept. 23. Also gets the Bill of Rights Defense medal on the steps of Federal Hall that noon which couldn't go to a more patriotic American. "Quite a shocker in current 'Human Events' — I mean the article on Robert M. Hutchins, top man of the Fund for the Republic. Hutchins testified under oath in 1949 when he was president of the egg-head University of Chicago that he saw nothing to be alarmed at by the fact that more than 60 of his professors had Communist affiliations. In answer to the question 'Do you consider that the Communist party in the United States comes within the scope of a clear and present danger,' he replied, 'I don't think so.' He also said 'It is not established that it is subversive to be a Communist.'"

Neville Beats West Monroe In Tight Game, 6 To 0

Reeves' 67-Yard Dash In 4th Sets Up Only 6-Pointer

By TED HECKATHORN

Speedy Terry Reeves sped down the east sideline for 67 yards in the final period last night at Brown Stadium to set up the game's only touchdown, as the Neville Tigers defeated the fired-up West Monroe Rebels, 6-0.

A capacity crowd filled the stadium and watched the Rebels crash through the Neville line time and again during the first three periods, to roll up a 7-4 first down score before Reeves' jaunt.

A Reb fumble, recovered by the Tigers on their own 29 on the second play of the fourth set, set the stage for the long play. Elton Upshaw, flashy Tiger quarterback, handed off to Reeves, who broke into the clear through his left tackle, headed for the sideline, and outdistanced the Reb secondary to the four where he was brought down after trying to cut back away from the sideline. On the first play from scrimmage, reserve back Gene Howard plunked through for the six-pointer. The kick from placement was blocked by George Smith, easily the outstanding defenseman for the West Monroians all evening.

The stubborn Rebel defense, led by Glenn Fleming, Sammy Fordham, Wayne Hendricks, Richard Watson and Smith, stopped the Tiger running attack cold in the first quarter, while their offense piled up three first downs.

The Tigers took over in the second stanza, and marched to the Rebel 25, moving the sticks four times in the process featuring 15 and 20 - yard jaunts by Marvin Smart and Upshaw. The West Monroe line held at that point, as did the Tiger line during West Monroe's only penetration to the Neville 19 in the same period.

The outstanding plays during the first half were Sonny Odom's quick kick in the second, that caught the Tigers napping and rolled 66 yards from scrimmage to the Bengal nine; and Neville tackle Bob Johnson's block of a West Monroe punt in the first.

West Monroe, besides showing a great defense, unveiled a bruising offense in Odom, Billy Hughes, and Mack Hunt, but they chose to take to the airways instead of pressing their running attack, and failed to connect.

Spec Lewis, star Tiger scaback, was not in uniform.

The lineup:

West Monroe
Ends: Smith, Ramsey, Glazer, Hudson
Tackles: Lawson, Fordham, Davis, Fleming, Webb
Guards: Watson, Monzingo, Chapman, Price, Cotton
Centers: Hendricks
Backs: Hughes, Huntsman, Hunt, Odom, O'Neal, Perkins, Howze, Marzula

Neville
Ends: Causey, Bassett, LeDoux, Johnson, D. Brinson
Tackles: Johnson, Arant, Smith, Gaekes, Keith, Anderson, Torrains, Cerniglia, Hobson

Archers Get Special Deer Hunting Season

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 3 (AP) — The Wild Life and Fisheries Commission announced today a special season has been set for archers for the first time in the history of Louisiana hunting.

Bow and arrow hunters will be permitted to stalk deer on the 40,000 acre Catahoula Game Management area in Winn and Grant parishes during the first 15 days of hunting.

Permit and checking station details will be announced later.

Jena Giants Grab TD Every Period To Trounce J-H

JENA, La., Sept. 2 (Special) — scoring a touchdown in every quarter, the Jena High School Giants romped to a 27-0 opening season football victory over the Jonesboro-Hodge Tigers here tonight. The Giants amassed 14 first downs against one for the Bengals.

Ronald Manchester, taking a pass from Tommy Thompson, raced for a touchdown on Jena's first offensive play of the game, the pass and run covering 72 yards.

Recovering a J-H fumble on the Tiger 25 in the second period, Thompson capped a second drive with an 11-yard end run for a TD, and Richard Bridges followed with his first of three straight conversions.

Manchester climaxed a 51-yard drive in the third quarter with a plunge from the one, and James Veach capped an 80-yard march in the final period with a ram over center from the one.

The Giants, who meet LaSalle of Olla here next Friday night, amassed 306 yards — 180 rushing and 126 passing. The Tigers got 20 rushing and 41 passing for a net yards gained of only 61.

Bastrop's Third Period TD Trips Rayville, 6 To 0

BASTROP, La., Sept. 2 (Special) — The Bastrop High School Rams, with only a sprinkling of the team left that won the north Louisiana triple-A football championship last year, defeated the Rayville High School Hornets, 6 to 0, as both schools opened their '55 campaign here tonight.

After a scoreless first half, Coach Eddie Harrelson's Rams forged their winning touchdown in the third quarter when Ralph McKinstry sliced through left tackle, scampered through the Rayville secondary, and went 35 yards to pay dirt.

Bill Loftin's first kick for the conversion was nullified by a backfield in motion penalty, and his second boot went wide of the mark.

Bastrop's offense rolled up 18 first downs against seven for the Hornets. Bastrop fumbled four times, recovered two; Rayville fumbled once, recovered three. The Rams completed one of seven passes, and the Hornets completed five of eleven.

MacArthur, Shigemitsu Hold Dramatic Talk At First Meeting In Decade

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Japan's foreign minister held a dramatic 75-minute conference Friday just 10 years after they last met as representatives of the victors and vanquished in history's greatest war.

"It's been a long time," MacArthur told smiling Mamoru Shigemitsu as they firmly shook hands. "I'm glad to see you."

The two former enemies met in the luxurious surroundings of MacArthur's suite in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Towers. The setting was a marked contrast to that of their last conference, exactly 10 years ago Friday.

MacArthur recalled they had last faced each other in his temporary office in the Yokohama Customs House on Sept. 3, 1945 (Sept. 2, U.S. time). That was the day after Shigemitsu had signed the Japanese unconditional surrender on the desk of the battleship USS Missouri.

Shigemitsu later was convicted as a war criminal and MacArthur directed the occupation of Japan for five years.

"How have they been treating you in Washington?" MacArthur asked.

His caller replied he had been very cordially received there and he believed his talks with the U.S.

officials would lead to greatly improved relations between the two countries.

The two men then sat down together on a divan in the MacArthur apartment. The former Far East commander, now chairman of the board of Remington-Rand, did most of the talking. Shigemitsu frequently nodded in agreement and put in a few words.

As he hurried from the hour and 15-minute conversation at 1 p.m., Shigemitsu mumbled to reporters that he had found it "interesting."

"A lot has happened to the world in the intervening time and it all has tended to make a great success of Japan and has proved to the great credit of her people," MacArthur told his caller.

Then he told Shigemitsu that the United States never had sought his trial as a war criminal, but that Russia had insisted upon it.

"I had no intimation at the time of our last meeting that you were to be one of the accused," MacArthur said.

He told Shigemitsu he had been opposed to the war crimes trials in Nuremberg, Germany, and in Tokyo after World War II. He said it was his personal belief that all Japanese and Germans still held in prison for war crimes should be paroled to their own governments.

During the conversation, MacArthur disclosed his latest thoughts on Japan's position in the cold war. He said he believed Russia never would invade Japan unless it first could convert Japan to communism. He advised Japan not to rearm beyond the need to defend herself. And he paid high tribute to Emperor Hirohito.

"I realize that advice is worth what it costs—that is nothing," MacArthur said. "But I want to tell you this: The Soviet does not now have and will never have the desire to invade Japan in a military way unless and until it can first convert her to communism."

"Russia's attitude toward Japan will be one of defense against her, but not one of aggression so long as Japan avoids anything in the way of an aggressive position."

Twice during the conversation MacArthur reminded Shigemitsu that he was not presuming to speak for the U.S. government. Although still technically on active duty as a full general, MacArthur has not held an official post since his dispute with President Truman during the Korean War.

"The employment and payment of deputies by the police jury seems to be a violation of state law," the audit added, "which provides that a sheriff shall not hold any office or position of profit under a parish governing authority. The attorney general has ruled that this also applies to deputy sheriffs."

The audit also said, "the deputy tax collector and a clerical employee classified as a deputy, both of whom are paid salaries by the sheriff, are also employed and paid as secretary and acting treasurer and as treasurer of the police jury respectively."

The report, signed by State Auditor Allison Kolb, said state law provided that no person can hold at the same time the offices of parish treasurer and collector of parish taxes.

"When this was called to the attention of the deputy tax collector," the audit concluded, "he stated that he would resign his position with the police jury as soon as he could secure and train a successor."

The audit also criticized the police jury for inadequate records on $108.40 in travel expenses for five police jurors while attending a convention.

In other audits:

1. The LaFourche Parish police jury was criticized for an illegal contribution to the chamber of commerce. "The parish treasurer informed our deputy auditor," the audit added, "that the contributions have been discontinued beginning with 1955."

2. The Jefferson Parish board of supervisors of garbage district No. 2 was criticized for inadequately supported travel expenses and emergency purchase of equipment with no publication of the declaration of emergency.

Flatiron Plays Big Part In Marriage

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2 (AP)—The flatiron may have a special place in the future home of Cpl. Thomas C. Bibbs and Mrs. Virginia Robbins.

That household appliance apparently played a big part in bringing about the upcoming marriage of the corporal and his red-headed girl friend.

Two months ago a marriage did not seem likely. Here's how the wrinkles were ironed out:

On July 8, after a romance of seven months, Mrs. Robbins accused Bibbs of beating her and her sister, Miss Becky Hall, with a flatiron. The beating followed an argument they had had, Mrs. Robbins said.

A court martial convicted Bibbs on the charge, sentenced him to 10 years in jail and ordered him dishonorably discharged.

But yesterday a judge advocated that there wasn't enough evidence in the case to justify the conviction. Bibbs was released from the stockade at Camp Leroy Johnson here today after 58 days and waiting for him was Mrs. Robbins.

And she wasn't waiting for revenge.

After an embrace the soldier and his girl announced to bystanders that they planned to be married next week.

Mrs. Robbins added: "I think our first wedding present ought to be a flatiron."

Mystery Of How Silver Heiress Died Deepens

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2 (AP)—The mystery of how heiress Doris Jean Silver Oestreicher died nine days ago in a strange apartment deepened today as city officials launched an exhaustive inquest into the cause of her death.

The district attorney's office had disclosed earlier this week that the 22-year-old Mrs. Oestreicher, member of a family that founded the half-billion-dollar Food Fair supermarket chain, had died an unnatural death because of an illegal operation.

Medical testimony developed today that Mrs. Oestreicher, who eloped June 24 to Georgia after a story-book romance with a handsome Miami Beach, Fla., motorcycle policeman, apparently was pregnant six to seven weeks.

Three doctors who treated her professionally, said she was in perfect health, both mentally and physically, suffering only from hay fever and other minor allergies.

These strange points developed at the inquest conducted by Dr. Melville J. Aston, medical examiner.

1. Police have been unable to find the clothing the deceased wore the night she died.

2. The girl, with her parents, had sought medical help the day she died to halt the reported pregnancy condition.

3. The deceased, with her mother, was very surprised to see

With Extra Year To Make It Effective

CIO Extends Layoff Pay Plan To American Motors

DETROIT, Sept. 2 (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers extended their layoff pay plan to the first of the automobile industry's "Little Three" today. But the union gave American Motors Corp. an extra year to put it into effect.

The "Big Three"—Chrysler Corp., which accepted the plan only yesterday; General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co.—agreed to start building multimillion-dollar trust funds at contract signing to finance layoff pay.

American Motors doesn't have to start its trust fund building until Sept. 15, 1956, and benefits from it will not become available until a year after that. Workers for the "Big Three" become eligible next June 1 for pay during layoffs.

As in the three agreements before it, the American Motors-UAW pact followed quickly on the heels of a general walkout. No strike lasted more than a few hours.

American Motors builds Nash and Hudson automobiles and its Kelvintor division makes home appliances. It has seven plants in Michigan, Wisconsin and California and its full work force numbers 24,000.

The AMC contract, like the others, runs for three years.

Shudebaker-Packard Corp., whose 9,000 Studebaker workers in Indiana are on strike, and Kaiser Motors Corp., with American Motors, make up the so-called "Little Three." Together they have built only five per cent of this year's record auto output.

UAW workers in Studebaker's South Bend plants refused to extend their contract and walked out yesterday in the first official strike against the company since its wage-making days in the 1880s. Unionists voted against day-to-day extension recommended by their leaders.

Workers at both Studebaker and Kaiser agreed last year to downscale contract adjustments to make their firms, as they put it, er, made what was described as an "unexpected visit" to a North Philadelphia apartment late on the night of Aug. 24—and died there less than an hour later.

4. "Pressure" was exerted to prevent the medical examiner's office from conducting an autopsy as to cause of death.

All of the early witnesses testified that Mrs. Oestreicher—reported by her family to have separated from her husband, Earl, two weeks before her death—became suddenly ill while sitting in the living room of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schwartz. She went unaided to the Schwartz bathroom and 15 minutes later, after screaming for help, lapsed into unconsciousness and died.

Dr. A. Samuel Manstein, who lives across the street from the Schwartz apartment, and a police fire emergency squad were summoned and they pronounced the girl "dead on arrival." Both Milton Schwartz and his wife, Rosalie, testified that they had not expected Mrs. Oestreicher and her mother to visit their home "that evening or any other evening."

Mrs. Schwartz said when she saw Mrs. Silver, the girl's mother, whom she had known for about 11 years and had met "about 10 times" during that period, "I was very surprised to see her. I was very surprised to see her. I was very surprised to see her."

The AMC contract also covers

To Probe Sentence Reductions In Narcotics Cases

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2 (AP)—C. Aubrey Gasque, counsel for the Senate subcommittee probing illicit drugs, said today the group will investigate state pardon board records on reductions of narcotics violators' sentences.

Gasque said he has received reports that certain public officials are disturbed over the number of commutations of sentences for persons convicted of dope violations.

The subcommittee counsel said also he would discuss with state police Supt. Francis Grevenberg the drive made by state officers on narcotics since Grevenberg took office in 1952.

Gasque said he also would meet with Judge J. Bernard Cocke, of the Orleans criminal district court, who opposed Louisiana's 10-year mandatory narcotics jail term passed in 1951.

In 1954, the narcotics law was amended to provide a two-year mandatory term.

Gasque said the check on records of the pardon board would be broad, embracing commutations of sentence and pardons for a period of years.

He said he would ask for records on parole and probation if these affect the narcotics violations.

Gasque met this morning with Mayor deLesseps Morrison, who will be asked by the committee to outline some of the problems here and the work of the city narcotics squad.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex.), will conduct public hearings here during October. Tentative dates are Oct. 10 and 18.

Gasque said the committee's hearings would in no way conflict with the hearings that Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.) will conduct here on the narcotics problem.

The House inquiry, he said, would interlock with the Senate investigation.

"We will get together," he said, "and compare information. Rep. Boggs is, as I understand it, chiefly interested in the question of how the Boggs narcotics law is working. He was a pioneer on the stiff penalty aspects of the narcotics problem."

First Action To End Segregation Filed In Kentucky

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Sept. 2 (AP)—The first suit to end segregation in Kentucky's public schools was filed here in federal court today.

The suit, seeking to end segregation of white and Negro students at Columbia Adair County, was filed on behalf of 28 Negro high school and elementary students and their parents by the Kentucky branch of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

500 office workers, who will receive a three per cent pay increase with a minimum of $10.38 a month. They also are included in the layoff pay plan, as are 8,000 at Chrysler.

No other white collar workers in the industry are covered. Neither Ford nor GM office workers are union represented.

Woodcock and Cushman said their few changes in working condition clauses of the controversial snack and washup time breaks will continue. AMC had insisted on lopping off 24 minutes a day, saying this would bring its workers down to the 20 minutes prevailing elsewhere.

Holiday Doldrums Fail To Deter Stock Market

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Labor Day doldrums could not deter today's stock market which stepped decidedly higher despite slow trading.

Even though traders had begun to lighten commitments as early as yesterday (in case developments over the long weekend might affect their positions, the market left no doubt where it wanted to go.

It went up. The traditional pre-holiday slowdown as present, however, with trading at 1,700,000 shares, the lowest of the week, and comparable with yesterday's 1,860,000 shares.

Normally, a weakening of prices could be expected on the eve of a Labor Day weekend. This time the Associated Press average of 60 stocks advanced 60 cents to $176.40, with the industrials up $1.60 to a new 1955 high, the rails up 30 cents and the utilities up 10 cents.

Corporate bonds were higher. U. S. treasury obligations in the over-the-counter market also rose.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—Most grains closed lower in a dull pre-holiday market on the Board of Trade today.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1 cent lower, corn 1/2 cent lower to 1/4 higher, oats unchanged to 1/2 lower, rye 1/4-1/2 higher, soybeans 1/4-1/2 lower to 1/4 higher and hard to 15 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Wheat: Sep. 1.92 1/4-1/2; Dec. 1.96-95 1/2; Mar. .97 1/2-1/4; May 1.93-93 1/4; July 1.80 1/2.

Corn: Sep. 1.27 1/4-1/2; Dec. 1.26 1/4-1/2; Mar. 1.30 1/4-1/2; May 1.32 1/2; Oats: Sep. 55 1/2; Dec. 60 1/2-1/4; Mar. 64 1/2-1/4; May 65 1/2-1/4.

Soybeans—New Contracts: Sep. 2.22 1/4; Nov. 2.19 1/4-1/2; Jan. 2.21 1/4-1/2; Mar. 2.23 1/4-1/2; May 2.23 1/4-1/2. Old Contracts: Sep. 2.20 1/4

 POP! WHY DO YOU CALL ME "BUTTON HOOK"?
 BECAUSE YOU ASK SO MANY QUESTIONS AND A QUESTION MARK LOOKS LIKE A LITTLE BUTTON HOOK!
 DOES THAT ANSWER YOUR QUESTION?
 YEAH! I GUESS SO...

WILL-YUM
 POP! WHY DO YOU CALL ME "BUTTON HOOK"?
 BECAUSE YOU ASK SO MANY QUESTIONS AND A QUESTION MARK LOOKS LIKE A LITTLE BUTTON HOOK!
 DOES THAT ANSWER YOUR QUESTION?
 YEAH! I GUESS SO...
 WHAT'S A BUTTON HOOK?

EXAMINE SCHOOL BUSES—Sgt. J. B. McMillan, left, of the Louisiana State Police in District F, West Monroe Assistant Police Chief James Cullipher (center) and Major Jack Davis, Monroe police department traffic coordinator, are shown here examining the fleet of parish and city school buses which will begin transporting children to and from schools in Ouachita Parish next week. The officers will examine all buses, and will also test the bus drivers. Negro bus drivers of both the city and the parish were being tested Friday, white drivers for the parish will be tested Saturday, and white city drivers will be tested next week. NAMED ASSISTANT
C. R. Tidwell, manager of the local office of the Louisiana department of revenue announces the appointment of Mark H. Wilenzick as assistant manager of the office.

Mr. Wilenzick will continue in his previous capacity in the title and license division in addition to his new assignment which is designed to facilitate and expedite service to the taxpayers.

LAWYER USES MOUTH
MANVILLE, N. J. — Jack Trombadorie wrote the answers to his two-day bar examination with a pen stuck in his teeth. The 27-year-old University of Michigan graduate has been deprived of the use of his arms since he had polio at the age of 3. Trombadorie, a scholarship student, plans a general practice.
